

C-MAT 2013

Date: 23rd and 24th February, 2013

A proud achievement for SRK Institute of Management and Computer Education, for the year beginning 2013, was its attainment of C-MAT centre .This has really added another feather of academic excellence for the Institute in the field of management.SRK Institute is now in Kutch the only one institute which is being allotted a C-MAT centre.

C-MAT - Common Management Aptitude Test which is conducted nationwide for prospective management students. The February session of C-MAT examination was conducted in the Institute on 23rd and 24th of February 2013.There were two sessions for the examination each day. The morning session started from 9:30 am to 12:30 am and afternoon session from 2:30 pm to 5:30 pm.

Almost 100 students from different parts of kutch had given their exam in each session. There were two sessions conducted on 23rd and 24th February which witnessed almost 400 students who visited the Institute for appearing for their exams.

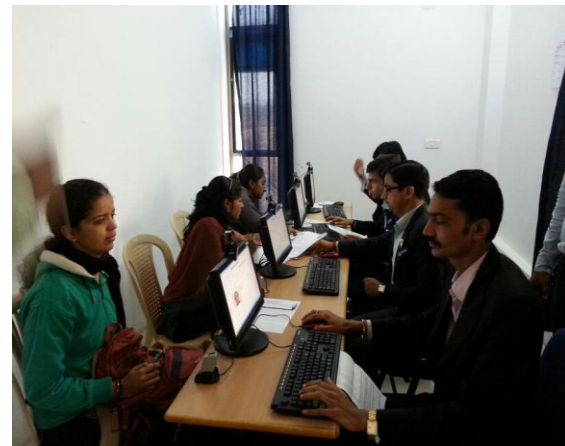

The conduct of the exam was supervised and managed by AICTE officials and Aptech centre officials who with the support of SRK staff, helped to convert it into a successful venture.

The Principal, HODs and staff of the institute had put their cent percent efforts, dedication and synergistic spirits to conduct the event smoothly and successfully.

The staff and the Volunteer students were allotted their specified duties which they performed effectively and efficiently to their fullest satisfaction, so that no hurdles are created for the smooth conduct of the examination.

The effort of the students who volunteered was really remarkable as they took their own activities in a flow. The duties of staff were divided into verification, registration and proctors. The verification desk verified the documents and registration desk got them registered for the exam. The proctors were in charge of invigilation during exams.

The lab was designed and set ready for the exam by the Aptech officials and professionals who were given the responsibility for conducting exams of C-MAT.

With this new beginning as a hoper for more bright and excellent future for management education .With this new mind the pamphlet containing the institute details, information and faculty information were circulated among those who attended the exam.

This was really a new and excellent experience for the institute and is looking forward for the conduct of C-MAT May session 2013.
